Thief Threatens To Establish Weight Lift Mark

World's heavyweight lifting champion Paul Anderson may one day have a contender for his title.

A thief scaled a six foot fence at the Daly City Welding Works early Sunday morning and by the time he was through had accumulated 400 lbs. of brass shavings worth $56.

He apparently went to a 50 gallon drum which is used for savings of brass shavings and used a pail to scoop them out. Then he placed them in a sack and made numerous trips from the barrel to the wall until he had completed his exercise.

Leslie Brown, 51, San Mateo, a partner in the Works, called police the next morning. He said he had fallen asleep and had no knowledge of the theft until this time. He valued the shavings at 14 cents a pound which would total $56.

Fire Chief's Nephew Dies

Lightning Kills Three

Lightning—a bolt from the blue—killed 300 or more persons annually and is the third major cause of fire in the United States.

The importance of such a fact means little to the average reader unless he is Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy or his brother Norman Kennedy, former Daly City resident, whose son Joseph, 14, was killed by lightning on Friday.

Chief Kennedy's brother moved from here in 1948 to Vacaville. He has three daughters, Joyce, twin sister of Joseph, Judy and Kathy.

Two other boys were also killed when they tried to take protection offered by a lone oak tree.

The following suggestions are offered by the National Board of Fire Underwriters as a guide for personal safety during thunderstorms.

Do not go out of doors or remain outside during thunder storms unless it is necessary. Stay inside of a building where it is dry, preferably away from fireplaces, stoves and other metal objects.

If there is any choice of shelter, choose in the following order: (1) Large metal or metal-frame buildings. (2) Dwellings or other buildings which are protected against lightning.

If remaining out of doors is unavoidable, keep away from small sheds and shelters if in an exposed location, isolated trees, wire fences and hilltops.

If motoring, when a storm strikes, stay in the car. The all steel body of your automobile gives good protection.

Library, Water Win Top Council Priority

Capital outlay projects totaling a record $360,400 were approved at a special budget session of the city council Monday.

Major items in the money set aside for key city projects in 1958-59 fiscal year were Westlake library construction, $153,600 and water department improvements, $146,000.

This will mark the first time that the city has allocated a specific lump sum to go to capital improvements. In the past, major projects have been undertaken as the budget permitted.

The capital improvement fund, which will be financed through sales tax revenue and surpluses from previous years, will swell Daly City's total budget for the coming fiscal year to $1,838,668.

The council will meet Monday to establish the 1958-59 tax rate, which may drop 56 cents to a figure of 92 cents per $100, according to estimate of George Watts acting city manager. Public hearing on the budget will follow approximately a week later.

In addition to library and water improvements, other items in the capital outlay program include: parks and recreation, $14,400; public works, $27,100; new Westlake firehouse, $95,000, and two new fire engines at $25,000 each, one of which will be purchased in the 1958-59 year.

While $153,600 has been allocated for construction on the Westlake library branch on Southgate, it is expected that only 40 percent of the actual work will be completed in this fiscal year.

The water expansion allocation of $146,000 includes purchase of new well sites, meters and construction of pumping (Continued on Page 2)

CD Group Names DC Executives

An executive council made up of members of each division of the Daly City civil defense council was appointed at Thursday's meeting of the local CD unit.

Named to the executive group, which will report regularly to the coordinating council, were: Mayor Michael De Bernardi, George Watts, acting city manager, Frank De Martini, William Lesher and Mrs. Kenneth Gillespie.

The local defense council is currently making plans for a major meeting on August 28, to be held at the War Memorial building at 8 p.m.

Business conducted at Thursday's meeting included:

1. Report by Jack Blank of Yellow Cab that as of August 1 Hilltop Cab radio will be on same frequency as San Francisco Yellow Cab and that 11 cabs will be available, all at the disposal of the civil defense council.

2. Report by Joseph Lewkowitz, school trustee, that five school buses are available for CD work.

3. Discussion of a public education program, which would include extensive publicity and use of Army films available to CD works.

Furtado Found Innocent

Oscar Furtado, 51-year-old Westlaker, was cleared of child molestation and exposure charges Tuesday in Judge Thomas L. Bocci's municipal court.

Furtado, 40 Pinehaven drive, was arrested last March on two counts of molesting a minor child and one count of lewd exposure.

Judge Bocci dismissed two of the charges on motion of Furtado's attorney, James Duryea, who pointed to the lack of evidence against his client. Trial proceeded on one count of molesting, and Judge Bocci found Furtado innocent.

Judge Bocci ruled in the case, as Furtado earlier had waived jury trial.

Furtado, a plant superintendent, was accompanied by some eight of his neighbors who had volunteered to appear as character witnesses.

Furtado is well known in the Westlake community, having for the past several years appeared in the role of Santa Claus at his Westlake home, where each year at Christmas he constructs a Yuletide exhibit.

His Christmas exhibits have won him several first prizes in local and area-wide competition for home decorations.

When he thought the coast was clear he broke the window and took a rifle from the window, police said. The two officers told him to "stop" but he aimed the rifle at them. A second shout and Karnaookh gave himself up.

He was brought to Junipero Serra hospital for treatment of a cut thumb sustained while breaking the window. According to the attending physician he "feigned a loss of memory." His identification was later verified.

Karnaookh was on parole. He was once arrested for an attempted bank robbery.

Zwicker, WIA Director, Resigns After 3 Years

Glenn Zwicker, member of the Westlake Improvement Association board of directors for the past three years, submitted his resignation Monday night, effective immediately.

Zwicker, 133 Brooklawn, is being transferred to Los Angeles by the federal government. He is employed as an electronics engineer.

He had formerly served as acting vice president of the Westlake group and was currently assistant treasurer. His replacement will probably be made at the next meeting of the board.

The Westlake board heard Monday that Henry Doelger's new Skyline Shopping Center in the Palisades area will be completed in from one year to 15 months. Jack Kendree, managing director of Westlake Shopping Center, informed the board of progress on the Skyline center in a letter requested by the Westlake association.

Market Thieves Nab 400 Lb. Safe, Escape With $400

A 400-pound floor safe was removed from the Mid City Market, 6718 Mission street sometime Tuesday night, along with 25 cartons of cigarettes valued at $43.75, $147 in cash, and the safe's value placed at $200 for a total of $400 loot for the thief or thieves.

The floor safe had wheels on it and was apparently taken down the rear stairs of the Market and to the parking lot. The victim, Lloyd Selmi, 38, who resides in the rear of the store and said he did not hear any noise during the night.

Entrance was made by placing two boards under a rear window and crawling through the upraised pane. A cash register in front of the store was brought to the rear and opened with a meat cleaver, which netted the culprits $25.50.

Apparently the "take" was not enough, as the men rummaged through the front of the store looking for more cash. When nothing else was found they took the 25 cartons of cigarettes and the floor safe. The safe contained $105 cash and $16.50 in checks.

$72,550 Sales Tax
In conjunction with the announcement that sales tax would make possible a 56-cent cut in the tax rate, Watts reported that the penny levy had brought $72,550.51 into the city coffers in the first quarter, from April 1 to June 30. This was higher than the $68,662 originally estimated by Watts.

Half of this sales tax revenue will go into capital outlay, the remainder towards reducing the property tax, according to the acting city manager.

Fate of the sales tax, however, may hinge on a vote of the people at a November referendum.

The council will vote this Thursday night at an adjourned meeting on motion of Councilman Edward Dennis to place the sales tax issue on the county ballot in the November election.

OFFICERS SAVE LIFE OF WESTLAKER — WOULD BE SUICIDE

Efforts of Officers G. E. Brooks and David H. Johnstone did not go unrewarded Thursday as they gave artificial respiration to Harold H. Roman, 41, 66 Montrose drive, and saved his life after a suicide attempt in his car.

Roman had left a note to his wife, Ruth, stating in part, "I'll love you always." The rest of the note mostly concerned his wife.

Mrs. Roman turned off the motor of the vehicle in the garage and moved it closer to the garage door. She had just returned from work when she found her husband unconscious in the car.

A garden hose led from the exhaust pipe into the vehicle. After the two officers provided artificial respiration Roman was brought to Junipero Serra Hospital and then transferred to St. Francis Hospital.

Good Looks And Your Feet

Aching feet can spoil your looks and shatter your peace of mind. So you should care for your feet regularly, not only to keep them free of painful corns and calluses but to prevent tension that puts ugly wrinkles in your face.

The new pointed shoes may be too snugly fitted for foot ease. This causes pressure at the heels, on the ball of the foot, along the outer side of the big toe and sometimes at points on the other toes. Nature provides a naturally thick skin at these pressure areas when the pinch comes the skin thickens even more into unsightly spots. If we allow the thickened skin to harden more pressure is put on the nerves and we begin to feel pain.

The trick is to prevent excessive thickening of the skin before it starts by removing it regularly. There is now a scientifically perfected lotion that helps remove dead skin tissue in a painless and easy fashion. Called simply Pretty Feet it is a fragrant liquid that is smoothed on the skin, then rubbed off leaving the skin smooth and the feet refreshed.

To keep your feet feeling comfortable and alive give them a chance to exercise. Try doing household chores in slippers that are little more than socks. Move your feet and grip the floor actively while you are walking about. Occasionally rise up on the very tips of your toes to reach something on a high shelf. Sometimes bend down into a

WHAT TO DO ABOUT BEE STINGS

By Dr. Paul F. MacLeod

Honey bees, bumble bees, hornets, wasps and yellow jackets all belong to the same family, and they all sting. The female, with the exception of the wasp, leaves her stinger with the victim.

- Remember:
1. Scrape out the stinger with a small knife blade. Don't pull it out. You may cause poisonous fluid to enter the flesh.
 2. Use baking soda paste, Unguentine or calamine lotion to allay the pain.
 3. If a finger or toe is stung, wrap a rubber band around it above the sting and leave it there until the stinger has been removed (but not more than five minutes) to keep the poison from going farther.
 4. Call a doctor if the victim is stung several times. A wasp or hornet can sting repeatedly.
 5. Use ice packs or cold applications to help reduce the swelling and prevent absorption of toxin that may cause a severe reaction.

Caution: Anyone who has experienced severe reactions to a bee sting should consult a doctor. To avoid serious consequences if stung again, he should be desensitized or should have ephedrine or adrenaline immediately available.

LAW IN ACTION

ROYAL JURIES

In his first speech in 1801 as President, Jefferson listed the essentials of our government:

Equal and exact justice to all men of what state, color or persuasion, religious or political; freedom of religion; freedom of the press; freedom of person under the protection of the habeas corpus; and trial by juries impartially selected.

Impartially selected juries were a long time coming.

Before England adopted trial by jury, she had three ways of deciding a case:

1. Trial by ordeal: If you pleaded innocent, your hand might be thrust into boiling water, then wrapped up. If in three days it was "clean" or uninfected, it showed you were not lying. Otherwise you were guilty.

2. Trial by battle in civil cases: You or "your champion" could fight it out with your opponent. The winner won the lawsuit.

3. "Oath-helpers": A party's friends would recite an oath that he was in the right. An oath helper's mistake in the recital was taken as divinely inspired to show his party was in the wrong.

After the Norman conquest in 1066, the English kings sent out officers to get information. Subjects testified from personal knowledge about what took place in the locality.

Henry II in the Twelfth century used these same people to find facts in the law cases before them, which was the beginning of our jury system today.

The chief differences between our juries and the early ones:

1. The early juries told the judge what the local law or custom was. Today it is the judge who instructs the jury.

2. The early juries knew the facts before they met; today they should hear the facts for the first time in court.

3. The early juries had already taken sides before they were served. Today's are supposed to be open-minded.

Noted California lawyer who has been in the law for over 40 years.

Something For Everyone

By Samuel Chandler
City Librarian

Do you get tired of using the same old word time after time? If so, come into one of the Daly City's libraries and get acquainted with Roget's International Thesaurus, 1958 edition. Of this book one reviewer has written, "Whether you are writing a letter or a book, whether you would like to increase your vocabulary or are solving a crossword puzzle, or whether you would just like to recall the word that was on the tip of your tongue, you will find it in Roget's."

The thesaurus is a book of words grouped by ideas. For example in one place, you will find every word relating to joy and in another every word relating to money with quotations and foreign expressions. You will also find every word that means the opposite of joy or money, or whatever word you are using. Truly, then, this is a book that could be used by a great majority of Daly City residents.

Have you ever wondered what they grow, what is manufactured, what newspapers are printed, what are leading industries, what transportation facilities serve a given city? Maybe the place you intend to visit during your vacation? If so, the 1958 edition of "Ayer's Dictionary of Newspapers and Periodicals" is the book for you. The aim of this book is to provide a guide to publications printed in the United States and its possessions, the Dominion of Canada, Bermuda, the Republic of Panama and the Philippines; descriptions of the states, provinces, cities and towns in which they are published; classified lists; and seventy maps.

Remember the stories we heard and loved during World War II? At last they are being collected and published in anthologies. Of these, Charles A. Fenton's, "The Best Stories of World War II" is tops. Here are uncensored pictures of the private and social relationships of the war painted by men like Hemingway, Benet, Sloan Wilson, James Michener and Robert Lowry.

Do you recall the humor of Joe E. Brown, the man with the biggest smile in show business? At last, he has written of comedy as he sees it and produced it. His book is "Laughter is a Wonderful Thing."

Many other excellent books have been added to the Daly City Libraries recently. Among them are the following: "Air Spy," the story of photo intelligence in World War II, by Constance Babington Smith; "Wonderful Writing Machine," by Bruce Bliven Jr.; "The Reformation," a history of European Civilization from Wycliffe to Calvin, by Will Durant; "Our National Songs," by Ernest K. Emurian; "Brainwashing," the story of men who defied it, by Edward Hunter; "American Business Dictionary," by Harold Lazarus; "America as a Civilization," by Max Lerner; "Great Stories About Show Business," by Jerry Lewis; "Rockets, Missiles, and Space Travel," by Willy Ley; "Automation: Friend or Foe?," by R. H. MacMillan; "Best Sports Stories," by Irving T. Marsh and Edward Ehre; "The American Wars, 1755-1953," by Roy Meredith; "The Christmas that Almost Wasn't," by Ogden Nash; "It Pays to be Healthy," a world renowned physician guides you to success, happiness and health in your

45 GOLFERS AT FIRST INSTRUCTION

More than 45 teenagers and adults participated in the first week of Golf Classes, sponsored by the Department of Parks and Recreation, held at Westlake Park and the War Memorial Building.

Instructor Marge Pierce taught the proper holding of the club, the basic golf swing, the proper use of the iron, and other phases.

The unique aspect of these classes is the fact that each person is taught individually as the evening progresses; thus everyone participating has pointed out to them weaknesses which may tend to hamper efficient golf play.

Because of a conflict with the watering schedule at Westlake Park, classes have been changed to Wednesday nights at 6:30 and 7:30 p.m. instead of Tuesday night as scheduled. Classes at the War Memorial gymnasium are held on Thursdays at 7:00 and 8:00 p.m. Classes are open to all interested, without charge.

children experiencing varying types of instruction.

A feature of the study will be the development of new instruments to measure the children's educational growth, one of which is the San Francisco Social Competency Scale, now in its pre-testing phase. In addition to results pertaining to the growth and development of severely retarded children, information relevant to classroom organization and curriculum is expected.

Tranquilizing Drugs Termed Effective Mental Treatment

Effectiveness of tranquilizing drugs in treatment of schizophrenia, the most common severe mental illness, has been proved in large-scale controlled research carried out by 38 Veterans Administration hospitals, the agency said today.

VA said the study shows the tranquilizers, chlorpromazine and promazine, are markedly effective in reduction of the number and severity of psychiatric symptoms.

Chlorpromazine was found better than the other drugs studied in reduction of symptoms such as belligerence, bizarre behavior, withdrawal from people, and disorganization of thinking.

The study also confirms previous clinical observations that tranquilizers do not cure mental illness. It shows the drugs make patients more responsive to other treatment, enabling them to participate more actively in physical medicine and rehabilitation activities, hospital industry assignments, group psychotherapy, and other hospital programs.

More than 600 VA patients with schizophrenia were evaluated in the project over a three-month period in the summer of 1957. The study compared the two tranquilizers with phenobarbital and a harmless, inert substance, or placebo.

The findings, based on a recently completed analysis of data, were reported at VA's third annual research conference on chemotherapy in psychiatry, held at the Downey, Illinois, VA Hospital, June 10-12, this year.

The project was the first nationwide controlled evaluation of tranquilizing drugs and the first of a series of large-scale VA studies on newer drugs for mental illness. It was coordinated by the central neuro-psychiatric research unit of the VA Hospital at Perry Point, Maryland.

Three VA hospitals in California, Palo Alto, Los Angeles, and Sepulveda, participated in the study.

Navy Billet Extends To Legal Field

Chief Leo Polhemus recently suggested that as the American Bar Association Examinations draws near, law school graduates should consider their plans for the future in respect to their military obligation.

The Navy now allows young lawyers to enter the Naval Officer Candidate School, Newport, R. I., as legal specialists. Upon completion of the four months OCS Program, the lawyer is commissioned with the rank of Lieut. (JG) and has the prospect of being assigned a Navy billet in the legal field.

The normally stringent eye sight requirements of the Navy are relaxed in the case of legal specialists. Vision as poor as 20/200 will normally be acceptable provided that each eye is correctable to 20/20 with glasses.

The graduate of a law school accredited by the American Bar Association may now apply for the Legal OCS program. Prior to final acceptance, however, the applicant should be a member of the bar of a Federal Court or the high court of the State or Territory of the United States or District of Columbia.

Information regarding the legal program can be obtained by contacting the U. S. Navy Recruiting Branch Station at 6705 Mission street.

"Penny Carnival" Attracts 500

Last week more than 500 youngsters from the Westlake-Broadmoor areas attended the "Penny Carnival" at Westlake Park. The annual event was a highlight of the Daly City Summer Recreation Program.

More than 4000 prizes were awarded to the local kids in all kinds of skill games. Game booths ranged from popping balloons to catching a fish.

Plenty of refreshments were on hand for those who had an appetite or were thirsty. The popular item once again was pop corn. The pop corn stand was sold out in a short time.

The Mystery House was a big attraction at the Carnival. The host playground, Westlake Park, provided the Carnival attendees with a bit of haunted entertainment. The youngsters entered the House of Horror to commune with the past. The brave youngsters went through wide eyed and open mouthed.

Members of the Peninsula Sportswriters Association found recently that Y. A. Tittle can flip a quip as fast as a forward pass.

The 31-year-old quarterback of the 49ers with the receding hairline of a 60-year-old, shows little age in spite of his balding pate and an unmarked face after 11 combat years in the National Football League.

Tittle described the "Alley-Oop" pass as an accident at first. He sighted R. C. Owens in the end zone of one tiff but YAT, who could probably hit the eye of a gnat at 25 yards, threw an unusually short pass. Though it fell 10 yards short Owens grabbed it over another defender.

The second alley-oop was also a "mistake" as Tittle could not find a clear receiver and threw the ball out of bounds. Owens got it before it struck the turf. The quarterback joked, "It's hard to think after practicing to try and get a spiral pass and thread the needle that a guy like Owens can come along and ruin 20 years of practice."

Actually at the time (before Owens signed his 1958 contract) Tittle was quite worried over Owens' not joining the team.

Pitching doesn't come new to Tittle as he tossed for the Louisiana State University baseballers. In 1956 he spent more time on his back than standing at quarterback for the 49ers. One of the writers asked if he "had ever been a trackman." Tittle looked slyly out of the corner of his eye, his lips broadened into a smile and he answered, "Are you kidding?"

Now at the training camp in Moraga, Tittle, who took the passing accuracy championship with a 63.1 percent, says there is a need for defensive backs especially since the retirement of Val Joe Walker and Paul Carr. Jim Pace and Abe Woodson were great college players, he added, but can they make the grade as defensive backs—after all, Hugh McElhenry and Jos Perry couldn't.

Tittle reminisced that when he was first brought up to the Baltimore Colts there were seven other quarterbacks on hand. "I was wondering what they were going to do with all those men at one position," he commented. He naively had believed that he and the others were members of the team because they all had signed contracts. He was quite surprised when the coach told him only two qb's would be kept.

How could the National Football League be improved? "By giving more protection to the quarterback," he kidded. Actually the referee watches the T-Man as closely as possible. Tittle likes the kicking phase of Canadian football, he helped coach a northwestern team for three weeks this winter, and says that it would help put the "foot" back in football in NFL play.

Throw a ball to an American and he'll catch it, throw it to a Canadian and he'll kick it, the pass-master said. However, there are few Canadian high schools that have football teams and for this reason the Northern teams must draw a supply of men from the United States.

It is interesting to note that Tittle as signal caller uses the off-beat cadence, "Go... Go... Go" for instance, with different intervals between words if the ball was to be snapped on a count of three.

Speaking of linemen, Tittle commented that Gine Marchetti seems to give big Bob St. Clair the most trouble. "St. Clair is the best, but he has trouble with Marchetti," Tittle added. Tittle related a story of one rabid 49er fan who was in a football club and knows football "inside-out." The avid rooter wrote a letter to Frankie Albert giving the 49ers a sure fire touch-down play. "I know how to use all nine men to best advantage," the letter ended.

County Veterans' Home Announces Admission Terms

War-time veterans who have resided in California for at least ten years may be admitted as domiciliary patients almost immediately, San Mateo County Veterans' Service Officer Floyd D. Granger reported today.

Legally eligible veterans who are suffering from a disability, disease or defect which will incapacitate them from earning a living for a prospective period, thereby indicating a need for domiciliary care, can be considered for immediate admission to the Veterans Home.

Such is not the case, Granger pointed out, for those veterans desiring admission to the Veterans Home as a hospital or intermediate (long term care) type of patient. At the present time there is a waiting list for men in both of these categories with 110 on the hospital waiting list and 160 awaiting admission for intermediate care.

The waiting lists include two veterans from San Mateo County for hospital care and ten veterans for intermediate care. Granger also reported that the third and final unit of the $2,000,000 Abraham Lincoln Recreation Center has been completed and the new wing to the hospital is now fully staffed.

At the present time there are 2100 members in the home, 185 Spanish-American War veterans, 1550 from World War I, 355 from World War II, and 10 from the Korean War.

On April 22, 1921, the first flight from the U.S. to Haiti was made by U.S. Marine Corps Lieutenant Colonel T. C. Turner.

Ice Follies Has Largest Travel Show In World

Moving arrangements for the Ice Follies, the world's largest travelling show, are already nearing completion backstage at the Winterland arena in San Francisco.

Hundreds of crates, trunks and other containers are being readied for the 20,000-mile trip that the show makes through 21 cities every year. Already in San Francisco for six weeks, the Ice Follies will close its current run August 31. A new show will open in Los Angeles during the first week in September.

Demise of the Ringling Brothers Circus has left the giant ice show as the largest entertainment enterprise on wheels. Under the direction of Stage Manager Bert Lundblad and Company Manager Ray Heim, 168 employees and tons of costumes, props, lighting boards and other equipment will be bundled into specially-prepared crates. A crew of carpenters makes new crates to fit the various-sized props each year.

A 16-car train, including six baggage cars, six passenger cars, a club car and a diner is required to move the show. Some 80 performers are joined by an equal number of producers, lighting, wardrobe, ticket and backstage helpers.

Performances are held nightly at 8:30 p.m. except Monday with a matinee Saturday at 2:30 p.m. and two shows Sunday at 1:30 and 5:30 p.m. Tickets may be obtained at the Winterland box office, Post and Steiner streets, or the Downtown Center Garage in San Francisco. Mail and phone orders are also accepted. Prices are $1.75, 2.20, 2.75, 3.30 and 3.85.

Marine Corps recruit training methods have been proven so successful that they are little changed since World War I.

Seven Brisbane Girls Complete 900-Mile 'Trip Of A Lifetime'

By Servart Oljakian

Girl Scouting is great fun and it was especially so for 13 grand and glorious days this past month, when seven fresh-man-age Brisbane girls of Troop 64, and one Daly City Senior Scout, undertook a 900-mile trip under the able leadership of Mrs. R. M. Wooden, and co-leader, Mrs. N. Lorentz.

Mrs. Lorentz transported the girls in her station wagon, while Mrs. Wooden and Senior Scout Anne Mori were in a panel truck with baggage and camping paraphernalia. Anne Mori of Broadmoor was an assistant in helping set up camp at each location.

The first two nights were spent at Armstrong Redwoods State Park in Guerneville. There they attended the Stumptown Daze Parade, swam in Russian River, and assisted in flag lowering ceremonies. La Trianon Resort was the second stop, where they spent two more nights. Swimming was enjoyed by the group in Blue Lake.

During their third stop at Injun Jim's Campground, the girls had the experience of sleeping in one big white tent at Ranger Headquarters, on their fourth stop. Lake Almanor near Chester was their fifth stop where they spent four days and nights enjoying various activities. They swam in the lake, visited a sawmill in the lumbering town of Chester, saw Mt. Lassen, hiked to the mud flats, played in the snow, put up tents in the rain, and cooked in the rain.

On their seventh stop at Donnor Memorial State Park, they visited the Monuments and had a bout with the mosquitoes.

DC Drugs Take Seventh In Row

Daly City Drugs receipted for its seventh consecutive league victory in the Sunday Summer League as Barry Krohn struck out 12 and allowed but three hits to the OLPH team, while chalking up a 9-3 win.

Mike O'Leary and Billy Hix drove three runs across the plate, apiece and George Serrecchia tripled for the Drugs nine.

In Saturday "C" League play Billy Ludwigen hurled Tom Bournellis' Drugs team to a 14-5 triumph over Moose Lodge. Long ball hitting was supplied by George Claus and Eddie Walther, both tripling.

Barry Krohn struck out twelve while holding OLPH to three hits to win the second game of the second half of the Sunday Summer League for Daly City Drugs, 9 to 3. Mike O'Leary batted in three runs with three hits for four times at bat, and George Claus had two for three.

Billy Hix also knocked in three runs, and Eddie Walther two. George Serrecchia socked a triple off John Junglas OLPH hurler, and Claus and O'Leary each had doubles. All OLPH runs were scored in the sixth frame when Brush walked to open, Bragg singled, and Junglas smashed to first but the ball was dropped on a try at home. Another walk and a hit by Funi made it three.

The Creighton-Krohn key won their protest of their fixture to Meyers Sal Switch, and played off the final last half an inning before their scheduled game at B. B. on Saturday. Barry Krohn fanned two, but Campbell reached first when Walther dropped the third strike. Clay took the next hit, a fly short, tossed to Sonny Stoll covering second, and the game was over.
